It is to work as a team for a common good and I consider it to be the fundamental pillar of a community apart from its members, where it works to achieve a better development of it.

What does it mean to be a leader in your community or organization?

To be a leader is to be willing to give everything for the organization you represent, is to make others join the path you are going, in this case it would be to the organization or the objective you intend to achieve, is to motivate, is to understand, is to take responsibility is to have empathy for others is to work as a team, know how to lead and guide others in your group and be clear about what you want to achieve.

What do you understand by solidarity?

Help others without expecting anything in return and think that one day it will probably be us who need help from others

Why are you interested in a scholarship?

Because I am a person who does not have enough resources to continue studying a university career, but eager to get ahead and achieve their dreams and show everyone that young people especially ladies if we can get a profession and get ahead with Many sacrifices, attitude and responsibility in this way to obtain a decent job that helps me in the future to help my family, having this help that they make with great effort as an organization would be an opportunity to achieve it and the most important thing to know how to make the most of it. The most important thing is that having this support is that we should never forget who we are or where we come from. I hope other young people can also benefit.

My mother, grandmother, cousin and I.
